

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Ramsey County depends on Administrative Professionals who keep the county moving every day; they manage schedules, track documents, guide residents through complex systems, and make sure nothing falls through the cracks; and

WHEREAS, These professionals handle critical information, coordinate with multiple teams, and respond to high-stakes requests; their work ensures that county operations run smoothly and residents' needs are met without delay; and

WHEREAS, Administrative Professionals enable county leaders and staff to focus on policy and programs; and day-to-day operations, resident interactions, and important details are managed with care, accuracy, and attention; and

WHEREAS, They support residents through complex systems and sensitive situations; all people—especially those facing urgent or challenging circumstances—are treated with respect, dignity, and care; and

WHEREAS, Administrative Professionals facilitate communication, coordination, and continuity across departments; they link staff, teams, and residents to maintain effective and responsive county services; and

WHEREAS, Their work may not always be visible, yet it directly affects residents' lives, keeps the county running, and strengthens trust in Ramsey County services; Now, Therefore, Be It

PROCLAIMED, That the Ramsey County Board of Commissioners declares April 22, 2026, as Administrative Professionals' Day, and April 19 – 25 as Administrative Professionals Week, honoring the essential, frontline contributions of Administrative Professionals who make Ramsey County's mission possible every day.

Rafael Ortega, Board Chair, District 5

Tara Jebens-Singh, Commissioner, District 1

Mary Jo McGuire, Commissioner, District 2

Garrison McMurtrey, Commissioner, District 3

Rena Moran, Commissioner, District 4

Mai Chong Xiong, Commissioner, District 6

Kelly Miller, Commissioner, District 7

Ling Becker, County Manager