

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Ramsey County employs over 4,000 full and part-time employees who serve in every department within the county's five integrated Service Teams, carrying out a wide range of duties and responsibilities that reflect the diverse needs and aspirations of the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, Ramsey County employees embody a Spirit of Service, dedicating themselves daily to public service with unwavering professionalism, compassion, and pride, demonstrating a steadfast commitment to improving lives and fostering a thriving, inclusive community; and

WHEREAS, Ramsey County employees consistently strive for excellence, approaching each task with integrity, humility, and a spirit of selflessness that uplifts others and honors the collective good, thereby inspiring trust and confidence in government; and

WHEREAS, Through their individual and collective efforts, Ramsey County employees demonstrate that the Spirit of Service transcends mere duties, reflecting acts of courage, teamwork, and compassion that contribute to the greater good and help build a brighter future for all; Now, Therefore, Be It

PROCLAIMED, The Ramsey County Board of Commissioners declares September 24, 2024, as Ramsey County Employees Day and this week as Ramsey County Employees Week; and Be It Further

PROCLAIMED, The Ramsey County Board of Commissioners celebrates the Spirit of Service demonstrated by its employees and joins with organizations across the county in expressing deep appreciation for their invaluable contributions to public service, business, academia, and beyond, and for their unwavering commitment to excellence, honor, and integrity in all they do.

Victoria Reinhardt, Commissioner, District 7

Nicole Frethem, Commissioner, District 1

Mary Jo McGuire, Commissioner, District 2

Rena Moran, Commissioner, District 4

Rafael Ortega, Commissioner, District 5

Mai Chong Xiong, Commissioner, District 6

Ling Becker, County Manager